

COVID-19 SUPPORT IN CASHFLOW MANAGEMENT & FINANCE

One on one session with the business owner to coach businesses through the impact of Covid-19.

Cashflow planning is best practice in any business and critical to survival and growth. The business owner will be able to be coached/facilitated through management of cashflow in the Covid-19 crisis. This coaching may include budgeting, cashflow planning, modelling or cashflow scenarios, business financing options and business restructuring if applicable. Additionally, we will also work with clients to identify the immediate cash short falls and provide a level of support required to maintain the business stability in the crisis.

In this critical time, our businesses need advice of professionals to guide them through this unprecedented shut down.

Delivery: Phone, ZOOM, meeting or email.
